Ozongombe mOmbazu ya Kaoko/ Cattle Culture of the Kaoko Ovaherero

by Ngungaa Hangara, Jekura U. Kavari and Ephraim P.K. Tutjavi

This book honours indigenous Sanga/ Nguni cattle and their cultural and agricultural significance to the Ovaherero and increasingly to other cattle-breeders.

In depth information on the role of the cattle in Ovaherero history and society, way of life, rites of passage, omens, taboos, worship, battle, and techniques of husbandry will interest students of agriculture, veterinary science and anthropology.

Even a brief glance through its pages will serve to show the wonderful richness of Ovaherero cattle culture.
